

I am shocked to learn that you are planning to exempt Radio and TV Stations from the rules governed by telemarketers. You are clearly being influenced by the very people you are supposed to be regulating. Your job is to protect the taxpayers from these big companies taking advantage of us. If you exempt them from the telemarketer rules you will be failing in your mission. Please reconsider this ruling and do your job protecting the common people.